SCHOOL NEWS

Week 7

Welcome to week 7.

It is hard to imagine the term is coming to an end already!

SCHOOL JUMPERS

School jumpers will again be organised through the school. They are $50 each. Orders (via email to admin@fruitflyschool.vic.edu.au - remember to include quantity and size) and payment to be received by Friday 22nd March.

Hopefully this cut-off date will mean early term 2 delivery.

No payment no jumper. Unfortunately, late orders cannot be accepted as that holds up the order for everyone. Payment can be made by cash or credit card over the phone to "Admin Jan" 02 6057 9180

Sizes can be checked at Finer Embroidery who have samples to try on or by using the attached sizing pamphlets.

3/4/5

The primary students had a cooking lesson in the kitchen! Pancakes with berries, and syrup were made and enjoyed by all!

FROM THE CIRCUS

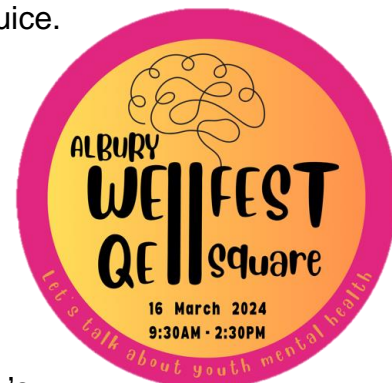

OUR COMMUNITY

Albury City's youth team are hosting Wellfest again this year, on Saturday 16th March, 9.30am – 2.30pm at QEII Square.

The youth team will be providing free pancakes, bacon and egg rolls and juice. They will have some keynote speakers, local youth service providers, performers, workshops, drumming, mindfulness activities, food trucks and more! Sounds great!

The main objective is the opportunity to promote what mental health supports and services are available for young people. The festival was initially conceived by high school students who wanted to talk about mental health with their peers.

There will also be the opportunity for young people to give input into Albury's Early Years Plan and what is important to young people in Albury, and people who participate can get free donuts or an ice cream.

TEMPO

Last chance to get your ticket for Tempo in Wangaratta!
